Opening Celebrations Held for Old Town Square

Fort Collins, CO --- October 30, 2015: On Friday October 23rd, 2015, renovated Old Town Square was fully opened to the public. Several hundred people attended the opening celebrations, which featured a variety of events including keynote speakers, a ribbon cutting ceremony, a Dragon Dance performed by Colorado State University students, an Open House, and a variety of local music.

Opening celebrations at Old Town Square

Renovations to this historic element of Fort Collins are comprised of a combination of renewed elements and new features, including an updated feature fountain, a new stage, vernal pool with pop jets, a new fire feature, an expanded children's play area, new pavers, and new lighting, among other improvements.

From the beginning design stages through construction, Ditesco assisted with architect and contractor solicitation, management of the program, SD, DD and CD phases, on-site resident engineering, and public outreach/engagement.
